

Possible Objects to Measure

Sample Measurement Tools	Possible Objects to Measure (Items that each student may have.)	Other possible objects to measure (Larger items for use in a center.)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unifix cubes • Links • Rulers • Measuring tape • Graph paper • Blank paper • Inch worms • Straws • Popsicle sticks • Beans • Measuring cups • Measuring spoons • Scoops • Pattern blocks • All sizes of cubes • Yarn or string • Balances • Tiles • Beads • Bears • Scales • Sand, rice, or popcorn 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Apples • Leaves • Gourds • Rocks • Hands (traced) • Construction paper teddy bears • Construction paper monsters • Construction paper object that corresponds to current unit or lesson • Kiss print • Plastic animals • Assortment of crackers • Shoes or slippers • Students' own heads • Students (outline on butcher paper) • Vegetables or fruit • Shells • Popcorn balls • Stuffed animals • Books • Balls (small enough to hold in hand—no bigger than a baseball) • Wristwatches • Sunglasses • Hats • Items linked to a book (A chocolate bar after you read The Chocolate Touch) • Plastic containers (buckets, cups, bowls, food containers etc.) • Lids • Pine cones 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pumpkin • Styrofoam snowman • Seasonal shaped candy dishes (plastic) • Class mascot (stuffed animal) • Easter basket • Fake plant • Vase • Globe • Containers (all sizes that will hold liquid) • Laundry basket • Ice cubes (for use in small groups—freeze in different sized containers) • Cat tail (or other interesting plant) • Kite • Pop bottle • Hat • Large poster characters (like a large Halloween skeleton)