My 1[#] fishing trip

It was a very hot day. I felt like I was on the sun. The ~~trien~~ wind whispered in my head. I said can we go fishing? My dad said #lets go! My dad grabbed the bait and the fishing poles. I hopped into the car like I was late for the finals in a basketball game. It was so hot in the car, I felt like I was eating a hot ^{pot tamale} mall. We fanally got to the Jandan River! When we were by the river, I saw a water rat, I ~~trid~~ tried to catch it but it was ~~to~~ fast for me. I saw a white one. Then it was time for the fun part! My dad brought some salmon eggs and his pole. ~~he~~ he got a yank but the fish stole his bait. Then it was my turn. I got a nibble and it stole my bait ~~to~~ too.

Finally after 100 bites it felt like it was grabbing onto the pole. It was a trout. I was so happy! It flipping and hopping then it broke it and got away. Because my dad wouldn't get the net to catch it in. It was a fun day even though I didn't catch a fish.
