

Show and Teach Bucket

Rules:

1. Only one item!
2. No toys!

Your child should come prepared to give the class three clues about the item. The children will have an opportunity to ask questions before the item is shown. This helps develop the ability to think, ask questions, speak before a group, and analyze information. Please help us follow these guidelines so it will be a positive experience for all of us. Thanks for your help.