

Discovery Box Answer Sheet

Africa

It is the second largest continent.
It lies between the Atlantic Ocean and the Indian Ocean.
The Nile is the longest river in the world.
There are huge deserts in Africa.
Big animals such as lions, zebras, and camels live in Africa.
There are dense rain forests in Africa.
One capital city in Africa is Nairobi.

Australia

It is the smallest continent.
The Pacific Ocean is on the East side of Australia and on the west side is the Indian Ocean.
There is a lot of desert land in Australia.
Koalas and Kangaroos live in the bush land of Australia.
Off the East Coast of Australia is a great coral reef.
Many tropical fish live there.
One of the Capital cities in Australia is Canberra.

Antarctica

Antarctica is at the bottom of the earth.
It is the coldest and windiest place on earth.
Nobody lives in Antarctica.
Scientists visit to study Antarctica.
Penguins live by the seashores.
Many icebergs float in the water.
Ice Shelves surround Antarctica.
It is surrounded by three oceans.
The South Pole is here.

North America

It is the third largest continent.
It lies between the Pacific Ocean and the Atlantic Ocean.
There are mountains, deserts, and forests in North America.
In the North you will find icebergs and in the South you will find tropical islands.
The U.S. is in North America. I live here!
People in Mexico break Piñatas.
People in Alaska are very cold.
One Capital city is Washington D.C.

Pacific Ocean

The Pacific Ocean is the largest ocean in the world.
It touches North America, Antarctica, and Australia.
You can find Great White Sharks in the waters of the Pacific Ocean.
There are also flying fish.
There are many islands in the Pacific Ocean and people like to go there on vacations.

Atlantic Ocean

It is the second largest ocean.
It divides Africa from North America.
There are many islands in the Atlantic Ocean.
Many fish are caught in the Atlantic Ocean for food.
Most whales stay in the Atlantic Ocean in the winter.