

FAMILY TRADITIONS

Ask your parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, or other members of your household the following questions in order to collect as much information about your family's traditions as you can.

1. In what countries did the members of your family originate?
2. What are some of the holidays your family celebrates?
3. What are some of the things you do to celebrate these holidays?
4. Do you sing any special songs to celebrate these holidays? What are the names of these songs?
5. Do you eat any different kinds of food on these holidays? Write the names of the ethnic food and what they are made of:
6. Why is it important that families have traditions and do things together?
