

FAMILY NOTES

Interview your mother, father, or other family members about how they felt when you were born. *Feel free to add your own questions to those below. As you talk with your parents or guardians, think about the importance of the time that you're spending together. Record responses of the interviewees on the lines.

1. How did you feel the day I was born? _____
2. Did you know anything about me before I was born? _____

3. Who came to pick us up at the hospital, or was I born at home or in an unusual place? _____
4. Do you remember my birth weight, length, your reactions, and so on? _____

5. What were the reactions of other family members? _____

6. What were my first words? _____
7. What sorts of things made me smile or giggle? _____
8. How did I happen to first crawl, stand up, or walk? _____
9. What five words would you use to describe my early personality traits? _____

10. What are some of your fondest memories of me? _____

*ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____