

ASSESSMENT/EVALUATION QUESTIONS - CONT'D:

4. Examine the possible consequences of teen sexual behavior, including:
- a. Teen parenthood
 - b. STD s and AIDS
 - c. Various costs and responsibilities.
15. List five (5) possible consequences of teen sexual behavior:
- Loss of respect from partner and self - Pregnancy - STD s
- Change in relationships - Bad reputation
16. Choose one of your answers for #1, and write a paragraph on how this possible consequence would change your life.
- Answers will vary
17. Are any of these possible consequences worth the risk? _____
Write a paragraph supporting your answer.
- Answers will vary
18. List five (5) out of 20 behaviors or actions that are steps to teen pregnancy.
- (See page IV-C-63)
19. The best way to avoid becoming a victim of the HIV virus is: _____
Abstinence
The next best way to prevent becoming a victim of the HIV virus is: _____
Using condoms
20. It might be okay to have premarital sex, if....
What are those "if's"? There are seven of them.
- If the person is prepared emotionally, educationally, financially, socially, intellectually, spiritually, and physically to handle any and all possible consequences that could result form the relationship.
21. Are teenagers generally ready to have premarital sex:
Financially? _____ Emotionally? _____
Educationally? _____ Socially? _____
Intellectually? _____ Spiritually? _____
Physically? _____
22. Basically speaking, most teenagers are prepared for any possible consequences of sexual activity. True/False
False