

ASSESSMENT/EVALUATION QUESTIONS:

1. Define the term role model and evaluate the importance of role models.
 1. The term role model means:
A person who models or patterns behavior, attitudes, and values.
 2. List three reasons role models are important during the developmental years.
Answers will vary

2. Identify positive and negative qualities of famous individuals perceived as role models.
 3. Because a person is famous and wealthy, they are automatically positive role models. True/False
False
 4. What are the positive characteristics that you look for in famous role models?
 1. Commitment to values (family, personal integrity, etc.)
 2. Setting a positive example
 3. Being kind to others/concerned for others
 4. Being generous

3. Identify personal role models in one's own life and evaluate his/her qualities.
 5. List five (5) different groups of people in our lives where we can find possible role models. (For example, relatives) parents grandparents teachers coaches siblings cousins neighbors religious leaders
 6. Why are different age groups influenced by different types of role models?
Each age group is influenced by those they are in contact with at a variety of activities. Each age has its own associations and therefore, different role models.
 7. Successful people surround themselves with others who are successful. True/False
True

ASSESSMENT/EVALUATION QUESTIONS - CONT'D:

8. Viable people are _____, _____, and _____.
Productive, self-sufficient, well-adjusted
9. Viable role models do not participate in any activity that:
Could cause harm or damage to anyone at any time.
10. Association with viable people can have a _____ effect on us that may lead to our success in life.
Positive

4. Identify personal (own) qualities exhibited as a role model for younger persons.

11. List your three (3) strongest qualities as a role model for younger persons you are around.
Answers will vary
12. List your three (3) weakest qualities as a role model for younger persons you are around.
Answers will vary
13. List five (5) younger persons in your life that you may be a role model for.
Answers will vary
14. What responsibilities do you have as a possible role model?
Set a good example
Live up to acceptable values
Be honesty
Show integrity
Have respect for other people's feelings and property
Etc.