

Investor Island

Investing Web Lesson Plan

Investor Island— A fun interactive lesson plan with web resources as well as resources you can print off on the concepts of investment, risk, and return.

Author of the Econ Lesson Plan: Patricia Bonner

Go to the following web address for the lesson plan:

<http://www.econedlink.org/lessons/index.cfm?lesson=NN554&page=teacher>

Description: Students take a trip to Investor Island on the imaginary Planet Orange where they are introduced to the concepts of investment, risk, and return. With residents of the islands, they explore stocks and bonds as investment options. In learning about these two investment options, they discover there is a trade-off between risk and return.

Investor Island Direct Link:

http://www.orangekids.com/amy/invest_ip_001.htm

Students make several trips to Investor Island throughout this lesson. The Island is part of the hypothetical Planet Orange developed as an interactive educational experience Source: ING Direct

This lesson provides you with the resources that you will need to teach this lesson. They have also provided a link for your students to follow this lesson online. The link for your students to follow is:

<http://econedlink.org/?a=554>