

Have students respond in writing to the following statement and discuss it together:

Write a paragraph on whether or not you will need life insurance five years after you graduate.

Prepare your opinions for a small group or class discussion on the topic.