

Rubric

Six Traits Peer Response Chart
Author's name:	Your name:
Assignment: RAFT assignment	5	4	3	2	1
Ideas and Content The writer describes the situation, giving specific details about the organ and it's function and structure. Facts are accurately stated. Prediction is made concerning the problem if left untreated. A solution is presented.
Organization The response is orderly and organized into paragraphs. There is an introduction, a body, and a conclusion.
Voice The writer directly addressed the audience. The language is natural and makes it convincing and interesting to read.
Word Choice Words used are specific and accurate. They are not confusing.
Sentence Fluency Sentences are complete and are logical. They show how the ideas are interrelated.
Conventions Grammar, spelling, and punctuation are correct and contribute to clarity.
The most interesting or convincing part was. . .
This letter would be improved if. . .					