

Introduction to Carbohydrates

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Follow the clues and find 20 words that will introduce you to carbohydrates!

1. A locomotive minus T Plus G. grain
2. R plus something done two times, minus TW. rice
3. Amount of size of a surface surrounded by C and L and changing the first A to E. cereal
4. The first meal you eat in the morning minus K plus D minus FAST. bread
5. Found in the desert plus someone who flies on a broom minus T. sandwich
6. A shiny object in the night sky plus CH. starch
7. Something you drive on the road plus opposite of girl minus Y plus a word meaning to add water. carbohydrate
8. A wooden pole used to row a boat with, minus R plus T plus something you should have 3 of each day. oatmeal
9. When something tears it is corn minus T plus C.
10. To crack into pieces plus something at the end, minus L plus F. breakfast
11. You play tennis with this, minus T surrounded by C and R. cracker
12. A spring of mineral water (also a place where you go to exercise, not a gym) plus a crowded section of a city where minority groups or poor live, minus O plus I. spaghetti
13. Opposite of the beginning, minus D plus a word meaning to have a lot of money. enrich
14. A pecan is this plus a system of ceremonies, minus UAL plus an atom that has gained or lost electrons. nutrition
15. An instrument for writing with ink, minus EN plus a room underground, minus CR plus the color made with white and black, minus Y. pellagra
16. You have sister and _____ minus B plus P minus HERS plus the opposite of out, with an E in front. protein
17. A word meaning very necessary, minus L plus there are 60 of these in an hour, minus UTES. vitamin
18. You fry in this plus for a birthday you have this. pancake

19. A person who make food is this plus something a man wears around his neck, minus T. _____cookie_____
20. This word rhymes with something that is opposite of sweet, minus S plus FL. _____flour_____