Examples of Chapter in Review Display Projects:

"'Pinning Our Progress' is about the FCCLA chapter and all of the activities we have accomplished and how we are introducing our new chapter to our community. We are also discussing our membership, budget, and how the various projects relate to our community. Lastly, we will discuss how our chapter is becoming more involved with the organization as a whole and how we are promoting it at our High School." Texas FCCLA Member

"This project demonstrates the power of our educational, vocational, and community activities in which we have participated. We encouraged others to join our organization." Puerto Rico FCCLA Member

"Our project is based on the credentials and achievements made in our High School FCCLA Chapter. We include our budget, recognition activities, state and national level star events, and more. We include all of the ways we improved and impacted our community and school. We go over the chapter's accomplishments in the past year using the national theme." Kansas FCCLA Member

"We included all of our chapter activities. Our chapter does many community service projects such as Adopting Families for Christmas and Foster Kids Party. We participate at local, regional, state, and national levels. We showcase our chapter activities so others can see the important contributions our chapter makes." Missouri FCCLA Member
