Speakers Bureau Directory

The UJ$C created its Speakers Bureau as a vehicle to bring financial service professionals into the classroom at no cost to share their expertise with students. The list of speakers spans the spectrum of financial services (banking, securities, credit, debt, insurance, taxes, and housing) and covers the entire state. The financial professionals listed below are available to respond to teachers requests as guest speakers and presenters.

Guidelines:

Jump$tart guest speakers offer free information to high school students to improve the financial well-being of Utah's youth. By volunteering to be on this Speaker's Bureau list you agree to promote financial management literacy and to educate students about jobs related to finance. You may mention where you are employed and the type of work you do, however you may not under any circumstances advertise or promote your company nor provide or distribute materials. Volunteers are encouraged to share their knowledge, but self promotion or advertising of products is not allowed. Please promote the standards and objectives of the State Office of Education.
