Intended Learning Outcomes

Identify developmental tasks and challenges that occur during the teenage years and conditions that can impede, delay, or interrupt these tasks.

Instructional Procedures

Teacher and student step-by-step instructions are found below in the "Roadblocks to Development Lesson Plan" attachment.

Assessment Plan

Students will participate in two evaluations today. One is the personalized license plate activity. No grade will be given, but assessments will be done according to the student's work displayed. The second evaluation will be the road map of life assignment. Students are to take that home and complete it. The road map assignment will be due next class period and will be graded according to the specifications on the assignment sheet.
