Background for Teachers

Plan for the field study by obtaining necessary permission, signatures and transportation well ahead of your scheduled date. Preview the PowerPoint in advance.

Student Prior Knowledge

Students should have a good background in architectural features.

Intended Learning Outcomes

Students will be able to identify American adaptations of housing styles using their features and hallmarks.

Instructional Procedures

Please refer to the lesson plans

Distribute the American Architecture note guide.

Present American Architecture PowerPoint and have students take notes.

Show The American House Video and have students take notes.

Day 2 - Use the field study as a method to assess student learning.

(Note: You may run the field study like a tour instead of a test. Have the kids be tourists while you are a fun and creative tour guide. Local historical societies can help add some color to your narrative.)

Strategies for Diverse Learners

Students may complete the study guide by using information from the text.

Assessment Plan

This is a practical field study test. Drive to buildings of various architectural styles and have students identify the style along with the identifying features and hallmarks on the form provided.
