

Interactive Web Forms

Summary

Forms can be created to let users interact with the web page. This activity lets users create a web form that will return a map using a CGI script from the US Census.

Time Frame

3 class periods of 45 minutes each

Group Size

Large Groups

Life Skills

Thinking & Reasoning, Communication, Employability

Materials

Web page editor, HTML editor, or Web form editor.

Background for Teachers

Knowledge of creating web forms and how fields and buttons are named.

Student Prior Knowledge

Knowledge of HTML and forms.

Intended Learning Outcomes

Creation of a Web page with a form that will let you submit data and return a map in the US.

Assessment Plan

Does the Web page come up, let you enter data, submit it and return a map.

Bibliography

<http://tiger.census.gov>

Authors

Carl Lyman