THE CHANGING FACE OF EDUCATION

FEBRUARY 19, 2016
8:30 – 1:30

AT THE MCKAY BUILDING
ON THE UVU CAMPUS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
GARY CARLSTON

Dr. Gary L. Carlston has served as president of Snow College since December 2014. A Sanpete County native, he was born and raised in Fairview, Utah, and has spent his entire career in education, both public and higher education. Dr. Carlston graduated from Snow College with an AS and Utah State University with BS and MEd degrees. He went on to earn an EdD at Brigham Young University in Educational Administration. He has been a junior high school teacher, elementary and secondary principal, district curriculum director, and was superintendent of the Logan City School District. Dr. Carlston was a tenured faculty member at Utah State University, associate dean in the College of Education, interim department head of secondary education at USU, and worked in the Center for the Improvement of Teacher Education and Schooling (CITES) at Brigham Young University. He has also been deputy state superintendent and served as Governor Mike Leavitt's Deputy for Education. Gary served for twelve years on the Snow College Institutional Council/Board of Trustees and was chairman for ten years. He has also served as an education policy advisor for Prosperity 2020 since 2012.
