

What to do with your digital images? Here are some ideas.

kodakgallery
snapfish
shutterfly
webshots
photoworks
bubbleshare
smugmug
flickr

.com

Most of these photo sharing/storage sites are free. They will house your photos, let you share albums, and offer great prints and a wide range of products. It's important to always have backups of your digital images and an online backup is a great place to start.

mypublisher
blurb
picaboo
togetherbook
mycustomstory

These book sites are amazing. You just need to download the bookmaker software to your computer and build your book on your own timeline. Then, when you're ready, upload your book to the internet and order as many copies, in as many sizes as you want. Most of these sites have great coupon codes, too.

Other cool websites worth checking out:

www.

moo
qoop imagekind
zazzle
cardstore
tabblo
mpix
photo.stamps
novapop

As if there can be more amazing websites, right? Yes! These sites run the gamete of amazing and super cool products and creative ideas for using your digital images. Check them out and be inspired.
