

UEN-TV Highlights - December 2020

Foody Fun

A Fine Line: A Woman's Place is in the Kitchen

Tuesday, December 1 at 9 p.m.

Why are fewer than 7% of head chefs and restaurant owners female when traditionally women have ruled the kitchen? Renowned chefs share their insights as the story a small-town restaurateur and single mom unfolds.

Farmers for America

Tuesday, December 8 at 9 p.m.

Celebrate farmers nationwide as they share the challenges and joys of growing food. Mike Rowe narrates.

Gutes Essen: Good Eating in German Russian Country

Tuesday, December 29 at 9 p.m.

Visit the kitchens of ten North Dakota cooks who make traditional foods from their European roots, including strudels, sauerkraut, kartoffel-kurbis strumbas, fleischkuechla, borscht, rahmnoodla, pickled beets, stirrum, knoephla soup and kuchen. The food is great and the stories? Even better.

Science Watch

Cosmic Flows: The Cartographers of the Universe

Monday, December 7 at 9 p.m.

Visit the planet's greatest cosmic exploration centers to discover the new challenges involved in understanding the universe. A journey on Earth and in the heavens that will take your breath away!

Saving Species Together

Monday, December 14 at 8 p.m.

Get inspired by positive stories of collaboration to protect threatened and endangered species made possible when people work together.

Trees in Trouble

Monday, December 14 at 8:30 p.m.

See the integral role trees play in communities with an in-depth look at urban and community forests.

Secrets in the Bones: The Hunt for the Black Death Killer

Monday, December 14 at 9 p.m.

Follow evolutionary biologist Hendrik Poinar as he searches for the secrets of an ancient pathogen to improve how we fight disease today.

Hope Overcomes

Children of Hope

Thursday, December 3 at 8 p.m.

First in the nation for incarceration and 50th in spending on education, Oklahoma is a case study for considering the correlation.

Dark Horse

Thursday, December 4 at 9 p.m.

Follow three candidates running for Georgia State House and Senate seats in the 2018 Election, including Phyllis Hatcher and James Morrow Jr.

Making it in America

Thursday, December 10 at 8 p.m.

Discover the contributions made by immigrant entrepreneurs to the economy of Florida and the nation.

Love Wins Over Hate

Thursday, December 17 at 9 p.m.

Explore the personal transformations of six individuals from anger and bigotry to advocating for empathy and inclusivity in this hopeful portrait of how people can change.