

UEN-TV Highlights - January 2021

New Year, New Series

How to Make...

Mondays at 9 p.m.

Material scientist Zoe Laughlin takes on the challenge of creating own version of everyday items from sneakers and a toothbrush to a pair of headphones.

Let's Learn!

Weekdays at noon

This series for children ages 3 to 8 explores science, technology, engineering and math concepts along with social and emotional learning.

Zeroing In: Carbon Neutral 2050

Part 1 Monday, January 4 at 8 p.m.

Part 2 Monday, January 11 at 8 p.m.

Climate change is our common crisis. Some people are doing all they can to stop it. In partnership with Northern California Public Media, we zero in on grassroots actions for a carbon-neutral future.

We Shall Overcome

With Infinite Hope: MLK & the Civil Rights Movement

Saturday, January 16 at 9 p.m.

Follow the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s career from his start at Dexter Avenue Baptist Church through his death on April 4th, 1968.

The Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Concert with the Cleveland Orchestra

Sunday, January 17 at 8 p.m.

The Cleveland Orchestra honors the 50th anniversary of Dr. King's assassination with a concert of classical selections and traditional hymns and spirituals.

After Auschwitz

Wednesday, January 27 at 9 p.m.

Six Jewish women who survived the Holocaust tell their extraordinary stories of rebuilding their lives after the war.

The Cure

Friday, January 29 at 8 p.m.

Three courageous women navigate through medical fact and fiction in search of health, hope and healing.

Considering Issues

The Civil Discourse

Thursdays at 8 p.m.

Explore controversial topics in the spirit of civil discourse, respectable intellectual debate and greater cultural understanding with host Paula Marantz Cohen's high-profile guests.

Question Before Us...

Thursdays at 9 p.m.

Thought leaders debate pressing topics including the Rise of Populism, the Global Refugee Crisis, Capitalism, Gender in the 21st Century and more. Featuring Stephen Bannon, Tony Blair, David Brooks, David Frum, Camille Paglia and Yanis Varoufakis.

Predator Pets

Saturdays at 1 p.m. beginning January 9

Are unconventional pet owners who try to domesticate wild animals crossing a line? Meet bear, big cats, crocodiles and more as this documentary investigates.