

UEN-TV Highlights - September 2023

TV for Thinkers

Art and Impact

Manben: Behind the Scenes of Manga
Sunday, September 2
at 8 p.m.

Step into the workspace of talented manga artist Minase Ai and explore the creative process behind her art.

Music for Social Justice
Sundays at 7:30 p.m. beginning September 3

Experience the musical performances of various artists drawing inspiration from societal issues and personal experiences.

The Infinite Art Hunt
Fridays at 3:30 p.m.
beginning September 8

Take a virtual field trip across the U.S. to explore art in different communities.

Passion in a Pandemic
Sunday, September 10
at 8 p.m.

Follow a small public high school as they prepare to perform for a renowned opera singer amidst the COVID-19 pandemic.

Hispanic Heritage

Flavors of the Dominican Republic
Wednesdays at 8 p.m.
beginning September 20

Delve into the rich history of this Latin American country while touring its beautiful landmarks.

Empire Builders: Mexico
Wednesdays at 9 p.m.
beginning September 20

Gain insight into the complex and often overlooked history of America's neighboring nation.

The Latinx Photography Project
Sunday, September 24
at 8 p.m.

Discover how photography is uniting two ethnic and linguistic groups in a rural California town.

Mariposas del Campo
Saturday, September 30
at 8:30 p.m.

Meet a group of Indigenous teenagers from Mexico who are determined to change their families' destinies while facing social and economic challenges.

Care and Service

Are We Safer Today?
Thursday, September 7
at 9 p.m.

Explore the challenges and achievements the 9/11 Commission has confronted since its establishment in 2002.

The Hungriest State
Saturdays at 8 p.m.
beginning September 9

Examine the issue of food insecurity in Mississippi through the personal stories of local communities.

Unseen
Thursday, September 14
at 9 p.m.

Get a glimpse into the lives of parent caregivers navigating the complexities of raising children with disabilities in the U.S.

The Story of the Peace Corps
Thursday, September 21
at 8 p.m.

Uncover the history of a U.S. agency that has influenced America's international role since the Cold War.