UNDER ARMOUR

2017 School Picture

Once upon a time, an alien named Wifi lived on a planet called Zen. He had a family of 1 sister, 1 brother, a mom, and a dad.

Everybody was mean to Wifi, and all Wifi wanted was to fit in with all the other aliens.

One day at school, Virus the bully, pushed Wifi into the lockers.

When Wifi got home and was tucked in bed, he dreamed that he had 3 eyes and fit in with all the other aliens.

When he woke up the next morning, on his walk to school he started to get a little scared, and wondered if Virus would bully him again.

That same day, Wifi was walking to Human Studies class and he bumped into this other alien.
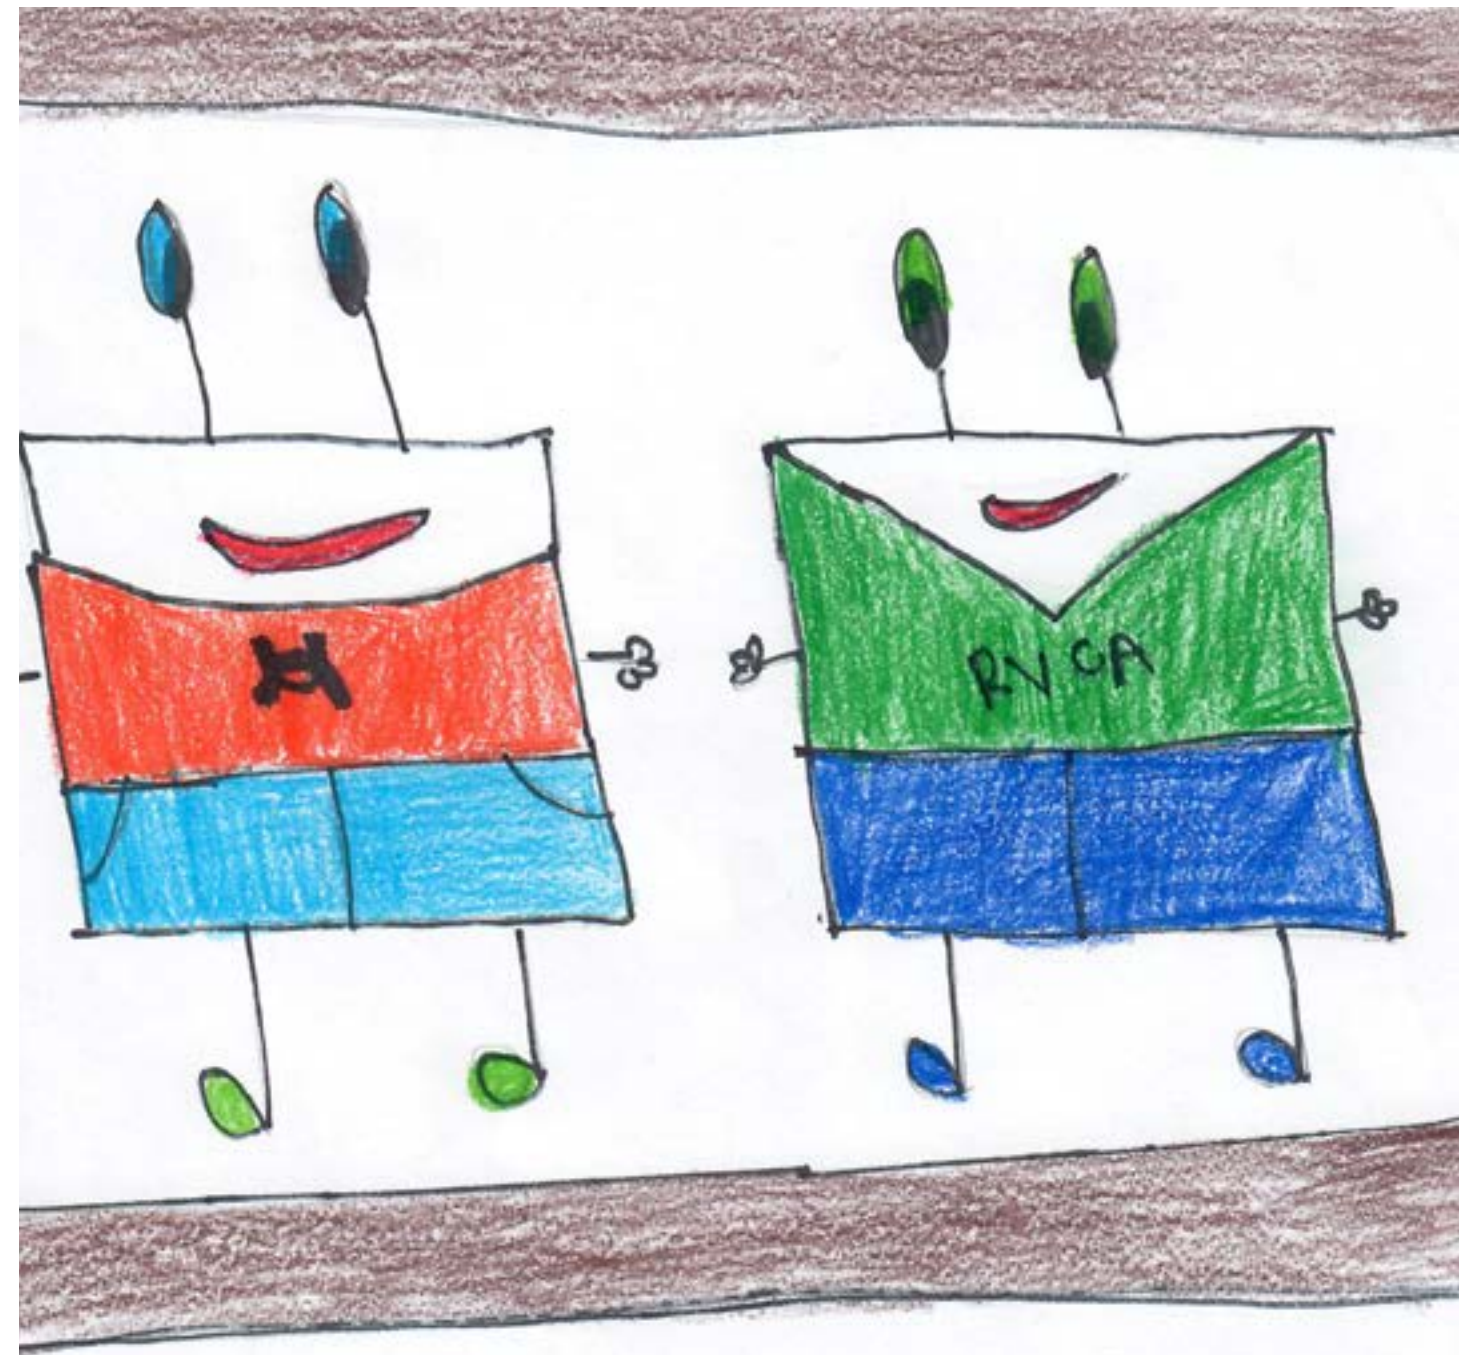

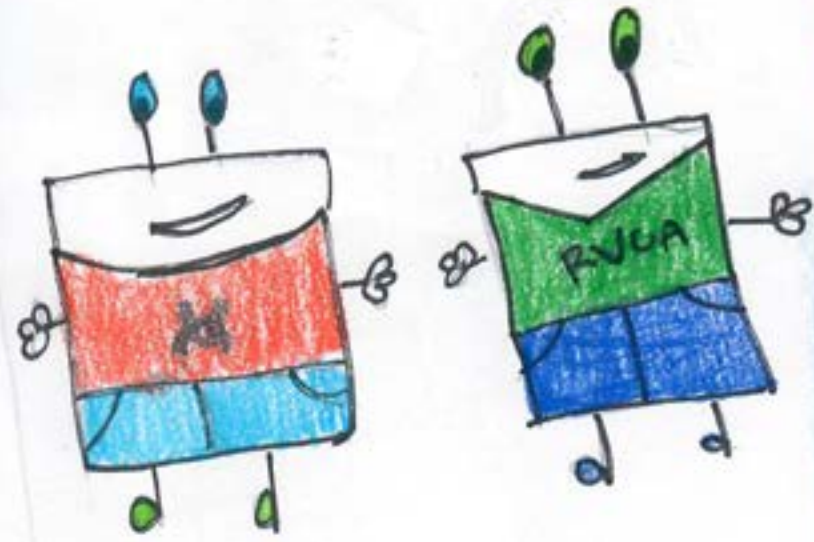

He was about to apologize, but when he got a better look at the alien, he realized he didn't have 3 eyes.

Soon Wifi and Chrome became best friends! They talked about how Virus had also bullied Chrome to.
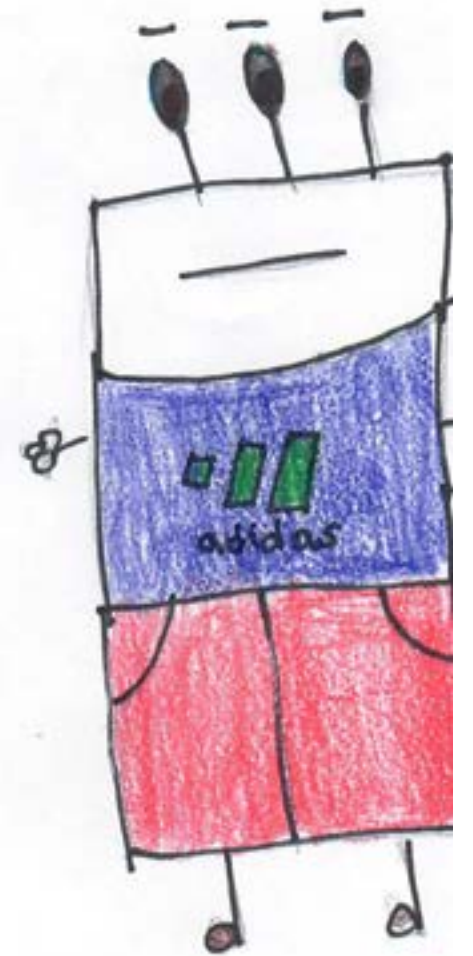

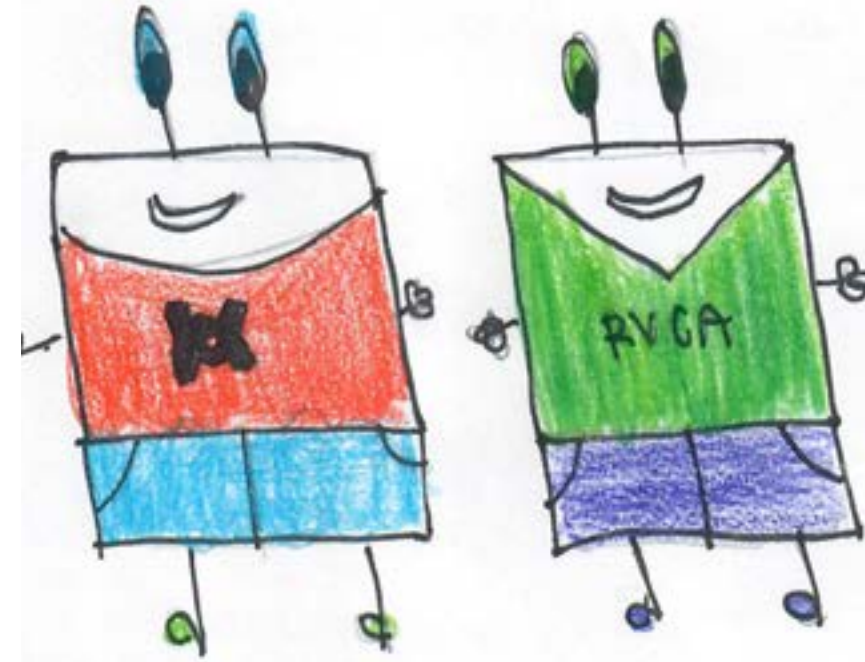

The next day they saw each other in the hall.

"Hi." said Wifi.

"Hi." said the other alien.
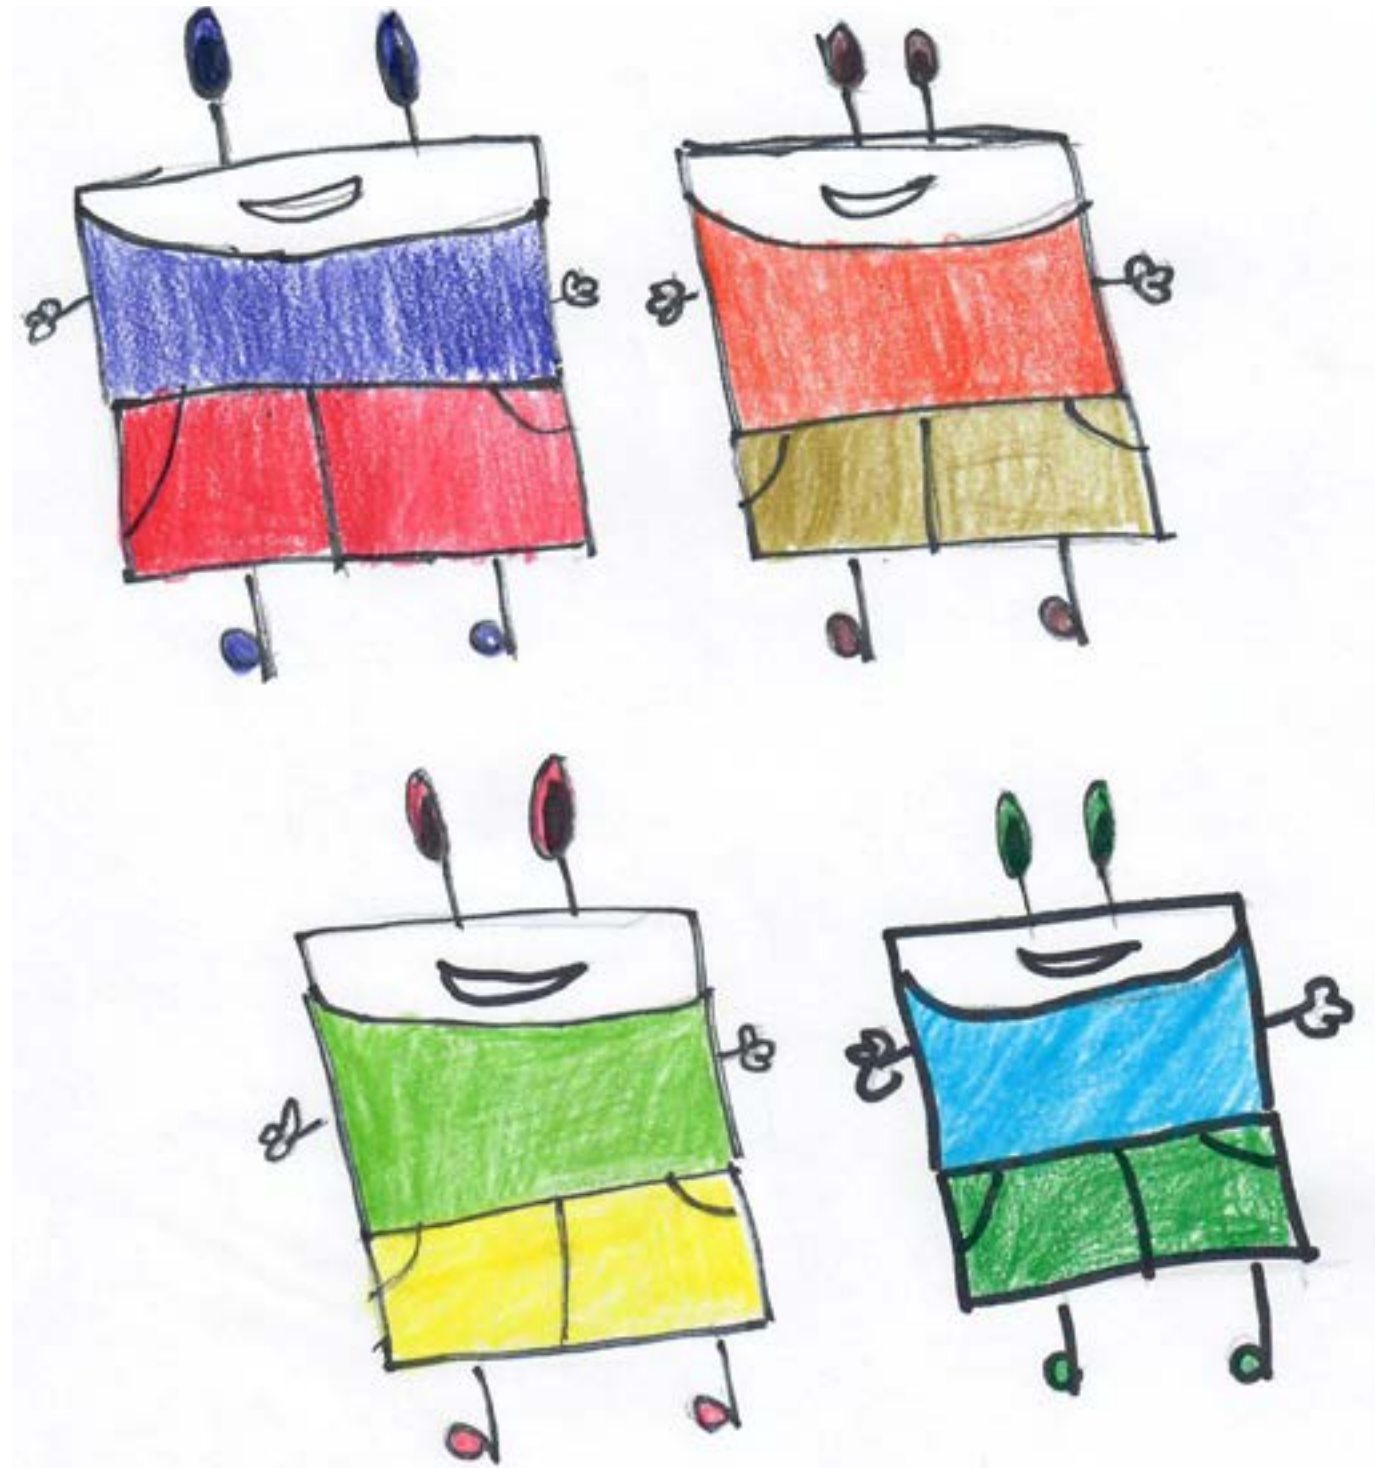

"What is your name?" asked Wifi.

"Chrome." said the other alien.

The next day, Chrome and Wifi stood up to Virus and Virus never bullied them again.

Chrome and Wifi were best friends forever and made a bunch more friends.

Chrome and Wifi found out that there was more aliens with 2 eyes.

Wifi & Chrome

The next day, both Chrome and Wifi realized it doesn't matter what you look like, or if you fit in.
