

Culture Survey

Circle “T” for statements that are true.

Circle “F” for statements that are false.

T or F When you meet someone for the first time, you should kiss him or her on both cheeks.

T or F If someone gives you a gift, you should say thank you, but wait to open it until later.

T or F You should never use your right hand to shake hands or pass something to someone else.

T or F If your boss makes a rude comment to you, you should just smile and pretend the comment was acceptable.

T or F If there are many people trying to get on the subway, you should push through the line so that you can get a seat.

T or F Men should always open doors for women.

T or F It’s not acceptable for women to drink liquor in public.

T or F If a friend invites you over for dinner, you should bring an odd number of flowers over for a gift.

T or F It’s okay to talk to your friends when you are watching a play.

T or F The guest of honor should sit at the seat facing the door.