

Attention Utah High School Counselors!

Why Adult Roles and Financial Literacy?

Guide students into this course for critical life skills.

- Meets CTE requirement.
- Meets Financial Literacy requirement.
- It may be available for college credit through concurrent enrollment.
- It is a home and workforce readiness course that prepares students for success in work and family life.

What is taught?

Career Preparation	Consumerism	Life Skills
Marriage	Money Management & Credit	Dating & Mate Selection
Taxes	Bankruptcy	Insurance
Decision-making & Personal Responsibility	Checking/Debit/Savings	Retirement Plans/ Estate Planning
Communication Skills	Investments	Blended Families
Parenting	Fraud/Identity Theft	Dating/Domestic Violence Recognition and Prevention
Effective Conflict Resolution	Divorce	Family Life Cycle & Aging
Risk Management	Pregnancy / Childbirth	Grieving & Death

Endorsed by:

*The Department of Workforce Services' Utah Healthy Marriage Initiative
Utah State Office of Education
Family and Consumer Sciences Education—FACS*