Thanks for the quick responses... apparently The Karen Carpenter Story is no longer in print due to a legal issue that came up right after it was made. Bummer. I was told that 'For The Love of Nancy' is a good one (with Tracey Gold), and now that I think about it, I think I've seen it and liked it. It is available on Blockbuster online for 4.99 and like 8.00 shipping. If I hear of any others, I'll let you all know. Thanks!
