

FEFE and NEFE Resources

The updated Adult Roles and Responsibilities and the Adult Roles and Financial Literacy Curriculum have some great teaching options. Two of these include NEFE (National Endowment for Financial Education) and FEFE (Family Economics and Financial Education). These two curriculum resources are accessible via the internet. On their web-sites you will have access to educational resources that correlate with the updated curriculum.

In order to access these resources you must register on these websites.

To register for FEFE:

- 1) Go to www.fefe.arizona.edu
- 2) Click on Make an Account
- 3) Click on Create a Profile

You can order free materials from NEFE which include student guides for your classroom. In order to receive these materials you have to go on the web-site and register. If you plan on using the student guides for the up-coming school year it is a good idea to order NOW.

To register for NEFE:

- 1) Go to hsfpp.nefe.org
- 2) Click on Instructors Log-In
- 3) Click on New User
- 4) Click on Register

It will take 2 to 3 days to get an approval for NEFE.
