EMPATHY

This assignment will take three hours. The three hours are spent in doing your normal activities (with the exception of television or movies), with one stipulation--you must have one or more disabilities. You can choose either being deaf, blind, mute, or having a missing or paralyzed limb. You can have just one disability or several. Keep in mind that a person who is mute (can't speak) is usually either deaf or blind, also. After your 3 hours, answer these questions.

What was your disability?

What time and day did you complete this activity?

List five things you could not do because of your disability:

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.
- e.
