

FASHION STRATEGIES

GRADES 9-12
ONE SEMESTER
CIP CODE 20.0306

COURSE DESCRIPTION

An instructional course that prepares individuals to understand the social, psychological, and physiological aspects of clothing and textiles. Focus is on the individual's own fashion awareness for personal selection, care, maintenance and construction of their clothing needs. Included are: the nature, acquisition, and use of clothing and textile products; consumer and career information relative to the personal collection, design, construction and maintenance of clothing and textiles products; and the effect of consumer choices on the individual and family. Career education and student leadership (FHA/HERO) are expected to be an integral part of the course.
