DESIGN ELEMENTS QUIZ

NAME __________________________ PERIOD ________

I. Choose the term that best completes each sentence. Write the letter for the term on the line before the number.

a. asymmetrical balance  e. proportion
b. balance  f. rhythm
c. emphasis  g. scale
d. line  h. symmetrical balance
i. texture

F 1. _____ in the design exists when the parts of a design are arranged so that the eye moves easily from one part of the design to another.

D 2. An element of design called ________ has the characteristics of width, length, straightness, and direction.

C 3. A design has _____ if attention is attracted to a certain part of the design.

I 4. ________ is an element of design that may be seen and felt.

B 5. A design whose parts project a feeling of rest or equilibrium has ________.

E 6. When all parts of a design look good together because of the way space has been divided, the design has ____.

G 7. ________ is the relationship of the size of one thing of the size of another.

H 8. ________ is created when the design is the same on each side of the center of the design.

A 9. When a design is balanced but is not the same on each side of the design center, ________ is created.

II. On the line before each question, write the letter of the best answer.

A 10. What shape is formed by the outer lines of clothing?
   a. silhouette  c. vertical line
   b. decorative line  d. proportion

D 11. What gives a garment shape?
   a. silhouette  c. structural lines
   b. decorative lines  d. fabric

A 12. Which is NOT used to make decorative lines?
   a. stitching  b. accessories
   c. trim  d. darts

D 13. Which fabric does not contain decorative lines?
   a. stitching  b. corduroy
   c. quilted  d. plain colored

VIII-30
14. Which design would accent a person's height?
   a. vertical lines       c. horizontal lines
   b. diagonal lines      d. quilting

15. Which texture seems to decrease body size?
   a. shiny               b. wrinkled
   c. fuzzy              d. smooth

16. A series of stripes from very narrow to very wide is an example of ________.
   a. progression         b. silhouette
   c. repetition          d. texture.

17. Which is the most important design line in clothing?
   a. silhouette          c. curved line
   b. straight line       d. diagonal line

18. What does NOT affect the lines in a design?
   a. length              b. curves
   c. width               d. direction

19. What does NOT make the emphasis in design more effective?
   a. texture differences c. line contrasts
   b. formal balance      d. color repetition

20. A jacket with an off-center closing and one pocket is an example of ________.
   a. symmetrical balance c. asymmetrical balance
   b. formal balance      d. silhouette

III. Answer these questions use complete sentences.

BONUS ******

21. Name a face shape and describe two clothing lines or shapes that would emphasize that face shape.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________.

22. What are three ways that rhythm is created in designs through a) repetition and b) progression?
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________.

VIII-31