
UNIT: Principles of Design

LESSON: Emphasis

COMPETENCIES:

1. Explain the purpose of emphasis in a room.
 2. Determine four ways to create a focal point in a room.
 3. Identify correct emphasis in a picture of a room.
-

OVERVIEW/SUMMARY:

Emphasis refers to a focal point of interest in a room. The room should be carefully planned to support the focal point.

MOTIVATOR:

Show students several pictures of rooms. Have them identify the point of emphasis or focal point for each picture.

OPTIONS/SUPPLIES:

OPTION 1

LECTURE: Present Teacher Information, "EMPHASIS".

OPTION 2

WORKSHEET: Have students complete the "EMPHASIS" worksheet.

OPTION 3

ASSIGNMENT: Have students continue working on the state portfolio assignment.

RESOURCES:

Inside Today's Home, Sixth Edition, Nissen/Faulkner, pp. 125-127.
