

ASSESSMENT/EVALUATION QUESTIONS:1. Analyze why teens are not ready for parenthood.

1. Give three reasons teenagers are not ready for parenthood.
Answers will vary
2. What are some risks involved with teen parenting?
Child abuse, premature births, loss of education, poverty
3. Are you personally prepared for parenthood? Why or why not?
Answers will vary
4. What would you miss or give up if you became a parent this year?
Answers will vary

2. Explore the dynamics of child abuse.

- a. Define the term child abuse.
 - b. Specify types of child abuse.
 - c. Examine factors that lead to child abuse.
 - d. Identify sources of help for parents and/or children.
 - e. Assess ways child abuse can be prevented.
5. Define the term child abuse.
Any mistreatment or neglect of a child that results in physical or emotional harm or injury.
 6. What are the four major types of child abuse?
Physical, emotional, sexual, neglect
 7. Name four factors that can lead to child abuse.
Stress, frustration, lack of money, lack of education, ignorance, lack of parenting skills, etc.
 8. Where can a person go for help with abuse--either the abuser or the abused person?
Answers will vary
 9. How can child abuse be prevented?
Answers will vary

3. Identify the demands and responsibilities that come with parenting.

10. List at least ten (10) responsibilities that come with parenting.