Communities throughout the world have many things in common.

THEY ALL SHARE A NEED FOR:
- Government
- Transportation
- Communication
- Media
- Law and Justice
- Employment, Jobs
- Health
- Buildings and Architecture
- Environment
- Education
- Social Relationships
- Aesthetics (Art, Beauty)
- Ethics and Religion
- Business
- Money—Exchange

BASIC NEEDS
- Water
- Food
- Clothing
- Shelter

Olympic Planners knew many things had to be changed so Utah would be prepared to host the Games. Check the areas that have been or will be affected as Utah prepares for the coming of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

Select three of the areas that you checked above. Describe the effects of the Olympic Winter Games on the state of Utah in each area.

____________________________ _________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
____________________________ _________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
____________________________ _________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
____________________________ _________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

Divide into groups and discuss your discoveries.