

DEAR EDUCATOR:

The Olympic Winter Games and Paralympic Winter Games will add excitement to the 2001-2002 school year. Thank you for your enthusiastic support of SLOC Education's curriculum, programs and activities.

- ▶ Over 700 public, private and parochial schools participated in One School One Country.™
- ▶ Some 180,000 students attended test events as part of "...classroom to events..."™.
- ▶ One hundred twenty teachers and 118 schools created original programs and activities through Sharing the Olympic Spirit™ and the Olympic/Paralympic Schools program.
- ▶ Over 350,000 students have participated Utah's Cool Winter Games™ Art Project and the 2002 Kids™ Commemorative Pin Program.

We hope that REACH will help you integrate the Games into your fall and winter curriculum. This educator's guide was tailored to the needs of Utah schools and will provide students with authentic learning opportunities.

We're looking forward to your continued involvement in the Olympic experience. Let the Games begin!

Sincerely,

An Educators Guide to the Olympic Winter Games and Paralympic Winter Games of 2002

The Education Department of the Salt Lake Organizing Committee for the Olympic Winter Games and the Paralympic Winter Games of 2002 is committed to providing Olympic related curriculum, activities and programs for Utah students.

Reach is a unique Olympic Winter Games resource, developed by SLOC Education Department, for teachers grades K-6. Questions, information, situations and documents, based on SLOC's preparation for the Games, add authentic learning opportunities for teachers and students.

REACH is separated into five sections. Each section includes the following:

- ▶ Fact Sheets: reproducible pages for students or teachers depending on grade level
- ▶ Questions and Activities: Primary and Intermediate lesson ideas to be used in conjunction with the fact sheets
- ▶ Worksheets: reproducible pages with self-contained directions
- ▶ Lesson plans
