

Introduction to Carbohydrates

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Follow the clues and find 20 words that will introduce you to carbohydrates!

1. A locomotive minus T Plus G. _____
2. R plus something done two times, minus TW. _____
3. Amount of size of a surface surrounded by C and L and changing the first A to E. _____
4. The first meal you eat in the morning minus K plus D minus FAST. _____
5. Found in the desert plus someone who flies on a broom minus T. _____
6. A shiny object in the night sky plus CH. _____
7. Something you drive on the road plus opposite of girl minus Y plus a word meaning to add water. _____
8. A wooden pole used to row a boat with, minus R plus T plus something you should have 3 of each day. _____
9. When something tears it is _____ minus T plus C.
10. To crack into pieces plus something at the end, minus L plus F. _____
11. You play tennis with this, minus T surrounded by C and R. _____
12. A spring of mineral water (also a place where you go to exercise, not a gym) plus a crowded section of a city where minority groups or poor live, minus O plus I. _____
13. Opposite of the beginning, minus D plus a word meaning to have a lot of money. _____
14. A pecan is this plus a system of ceremonies, minus UAL plus an atom that has gained or lost electrons. _____
15. An instrument for writing with ink, minus EN plus a room underground, minus CR plus the color made with white and black, minus Y. _____
16. You have sister and _____ minus B plus P minus HERS plus the opposite of out, with an E in front. _____
17. A word meaning very necessary, minus L plus there are 60 of these in an hour, minus UTES. _____
18. You fry in this plus for a birthday you have this. _____

19. A person who make food is this plus something a man wears around his neck, minus T. _____

20. This word rhymes with something that is opposite of sweet, minus S plus FL. _____