

Instructions: You have been given a set of information that is important. You are to go to the library and locate this information. Upon locating the information please document it next to each question. You may not ask the librarian or any of the library staff for any help.

1. How many books does the library have that are written by Charles Dickens? _____

2. When and where was William Shakespeare born. _____

Document your source: _____

3. What is the heading on page 25 of the Oxford Dictionary? _____

4. What is the call number for a book on astronomy? _____

5. What is the call number on all the fiction books? _____

6. What is the call number for all poetry books? _____

7. How many different periodical titles are there in the library? _____

8. What type book has the call number of 92? _____

9. In the book "The Hunger Games" who is the author? _____

10. How many pages does the book "The 290" have? _____

On the back of this page draw a map of the library and label each area.