

Introductions and Etiquette

1. What do you do if you can't remember the name of the person to whom you are introduced?
2. What do you do about rising when you are introduced to an older person?
3. What do you do when you are introduced to someone whom you have just met?
4. What do you do if another couple joins your group and no one introduces you?
5. What do you do if you are wearing gloves when you are introduced?
6. How should you acknowledge an introduction?
7. How should you introduce your parents to the principal of the high school?
8. How should you introduce a newcomer to a roomful of people?
9. How should you introduce your date to two other couples when he doesn't know any of the others?
10. How should you introduce a clergyman?
11. How should you introduce another girl and your sister to each other?
12. Does a man always shake hands with another man?
13. Does a woman rise when she meets another woman?
14. What does a man do when he is introduced to a woman?
15. Does a woman shake hands with another woman?
16. Does a woman rise when she meets an older man?
17. Does one use academic titles—professor, doctor, dean—when making introductions?
18. Where do you put your dinner knife and fork when you have finished the dinner course?
19. Where do you put your iced-tea spoon when no coaster is provided?

20. Where do you put your napkin when you are called to the phone during dinner?
21. What would you do if you found a fly in your dessert and you were dining at a friend's house?
22. What would you do if you got a piece of gristle in your mouth which you couldn't swallow?
23. What would you do if you spilled jam or catsup on the tablecloth at a dinner party?
24. Would you leave food on the floor in a certain cafeteria if you had spilled it?
25. Would you cut your head lettuce with a knife?
26. Would you put your napkin upon the table before everyone had finished?
27. Would you dip your napkin in your finger bowl?
28. Would you wait for the hostess at your table to begin eating before you started?
29. Would you break a hamburger sandwich in two before eating it?
30. Would you butter a whole slice of bread at once?