

Newborn quiz

Name: _____
Period: _____

1. What determines an infant's readiness to receive a tub bath rather than a sponge bath?
 - A. The baby is big enough to sit up alone
 - B. The umbilical chord falls off
 - C. The infant is no longer afraid of water and does not cry in the tub.
 - D. The infant is tired of having a sponge bath

2. The test done one minute after birth and again at five minutes after birth to determine the general well-being of the neonate is:
 - A. Apgar
 - B. Physical
 - C. Ultrasound
 - D. Reflex irritability

3. If a newborn is jostled back and forth and its head is not supported, the baby is at risk for:
 - A. Shaken baby syndrome
 - B. Down's syndrome
 - C. Turner's syndrome
 - D. Elephant man syndrome

Questions 4-10 – Identify the pictures from the slides shown on the screen:

4. _____ 5. _____ 6. _____ 7. _____
8. _____ 9. _____ 10. _____

Newborn quiz

Name: _____
Period: _____

2. What determines an infant's readiness to receive a tub bath rather than a sponge bath?
 - A. The baby is big enough to sit up alone
 - B. The umbilical chord falls off
 - C. The infant is no longer afraid of water and does not cry in the tub.
 - D. The infant is tired of having a sponge bath

2. The test done one minute after birth and again at five minutes after birth to determine the general well-being of the neonate is:
 - A. Apgar
 - B. Physical
 - C. Ultrasound
 - D. Reflex irritability

3. If a newborn is jostled back and forth and its head is not supported, the baby is at risk for:
 - A. Shaken baby syndrome
 - B. Down's syndrome
 - C. Turner's syndrome
 - D. Elephant man syndrome

Questions 4-10 – Identify the pictures from the slides shown on the screen:

4. _____ 5. _____ 6. _____ 7. _____

8. _____ 9. _____ 10. _____