Accounting -- Journalizing Transactions

Summary
Introduction of a 5 column journal for a proprietorship set up as service business and how to record transactions in a 5 column journal. Introduction of source documents and their importance when recording a transaction in a journal. Journalizing each of the transactions discussed so far in a 5 column journal in the appropriate columns (general or special columns) for the following transactions discussed so far: receiving cash from the owner of a proprietorship as an investment, paying cash for supplies, paying cash for insurance, buying supplies on account, paying cash on account, receiving cash from sales, paying cash for an expense, paying cash to an owner of a proprietorship for personal use.

Main Core Tie
Accounting I
Strand 4 Standard 1

Additional Core Ties
Accounting I
Strand 1
Accounting I
Strand 4

Time Frame
2 class periods of 90 minutes each

Materials

Background for Teachers
Students learn how to journalize the transactions that affect the owner’s equity of a proprietorship into a 5 column journal.

Intended Learning Outcomes
An introduction, review games and quiz for journalizing business transactions for a proprietorship into a 5 column journal.

Instructional Procedures
Print out the Teacher Outline with Answers. Print out the Student Outline. Handout the Student Outline. Introduce the chapter information to the students, having the students following along by filling in the student outline. Have the students complete the online activities and quiz.

Strategies for Diverse Learners
Online activities.

Assessment Plan
Chapter rubric. All students will turn in their chapter outline and play the various online games for students to review vocabulary. Online chapter quiz.

Bibliography

Authors
Nicole Reitz-Larsen