TECH: IT - Scratch Computer Programming

Summary

Students will use a plug and play type of program writing to modify an existing program and then expand it to write their own creation.

Time Frame

1 class periods of 45 minutes each

Group Size

Pairs

Life Skills

Thinking & Reasoning, Communication, Social & Civic Responsibility, Systems Thinking

Background for Teachers

You will need to download the "Scratch" program onto each hard drive. It can be found at scratch.mit.edu

Intended Learning Outcomes

Learn the basic structure of computer programming.

Authors

Ryan Andersen

Jeff Hinton

Carl Lyman

Rebecca Smith

MICHAEL WOOD