Roadblocks to Development

Summary
Teenagers may face challenges that impede, delay or interrupt normal developmental tasks. By identifying those challenges, teenagers can then become aware of how to get back on track to the developmental tasks needed to become mature adults.

Instructional Procedures
Teacher and student step-by-step instructions are found below in the "Roadblocks to Development Lesson Plan" attachment.

Assessment Plan
Students will participate in two evaluations today. One is the personalized license plate activity. No grade will be given, but assessments will be done according to the student's work displayed. The second evaluation will be the road map of life assignment. Students are to take that home and complete it. The road map assignment will be due next class period and will be graded according to the specifications on the assignment sheet.
