SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2018 | 9AM-3PM
Carolyn Tanner Irish Humanities Building (CTIHBB)
215 South Central Campus Drive, Salt Lake City Utah

LIFE ALONG THE GRADE
Chinese Railroad Workers Experience through an Archaeological Lens

This workshop is an opportunity to incorporate content regarding the experiences of Chinese laborers in Utah during the construction of the transcontinental railroad. This workshop will engage social studies, Utah studies, history and Chinese dual language immersion teachers.

KENNETH P. CANNON, PH.D.
President of Cannon Heritage Consultants, Inc., in Logan, Utah
Research Assistant Professor in the Anthropology Program at Utah State University.

DESSIE OLSON, NBCT, M.ED.,
Salt Lake City School District Social Studies and World Languages Specialist

Teachers can register for this course through MIDAS to receive 0.5 USBE credit. Search for “History of Golden Spike” MIDAS course ID# 47670
Or go to https://form.jotform.com/83056384474160