

UEN-TV Health Highlights - January 2017

From the Wings: The Live Art Story

Sunday, January 1 at 7:30 p.m.

A group of children with varying abilities come together to create an unprecedented performance and change their community forever.

Asian-American Life

Tuesdays at 6 p.m. beginning January 10

The news magazine addresses topical news, in-depth feature reports and untold stories of the Asian-American diaspora experience to an all-inclusive audience.

Surviving the Teenage Brain

Tuesday, January 10 at 9 p.m.

What if teenagers are doing exactly as nature intended by being selfish, reckless, irrational, irritable and impossible? The program looks at the critical developmental stage of the brain from a scientific and evolutionary point of view

How to Get Ahead

Wednesdays at 9 p.m. beginning January 11

You are a courtier in one of three infamous courts in European history, Medieval, Renaissance and Baroque periods. How do you survive and prosper? The program investigates incidents from bribery to blackmail, sycophancy to sporting prowess and partying to praying.

Growing Cities

Tuesday, January 17 at 9 p.m.

The role of urban agriculture America and its potential for revitalizing cities is examined. Take a road trip with the filmmakers and meet the men and women who are challenging the way this country grows and distributes its food, one vacant city lot, rooftop garden, and backyard chicken coop at a time.

WHEN I'M

The Civilian-Military Divide: Bridging the Gap

Thursday, January 19 at 9 p.m.

There is a gap of misunderstanding between those who serve in the military and the larger public.

When I'm 65

Tuesday, January 24 at 9 p.m.

Take a look at the challenges and longstanding myths about retirement and living longer.

Without Perfect Answers

Tuesday, January 31 at 9 p.m.

Two residential schools - orphanages - in North Carolina and Jerusalem work for a better way for at-risk children. The schools did not know about one another until recent times and both go against the widely accepted view that residential education, what once was called an orphanage, is discredited and harmful.