

UEN-TV Monthly Health Highlights -June 2018

Forever Young: Baby Boomers

Tuesday, June 5 at 8:30 p.m.

Examine the medical and social challenges facing the baby boomer generation and discover new ways they're sustaining their health and well-being.

Coming of Age in Aging America

Tuesday, June 5 at 8:30 p.m.

It's widely accepted that most Americans are living decades longer than any generation in human history. This longevity has far-reaching implications for society, and experts, policy makers and the general population are only just beginning to grapple with how to reframe our thoughts on aging.

Future Food

Thursdays at 8:30 p.m. beginning June 7

Tonight there will be 219,000 new mouths to feed at the world's dinner table -- that's 80 million more people over the next year. In the year 2050, there will be 9 billion people on planet Earth. How do we feed them fairly, safely and well and make sure that every mouth is fed?

Miriam Beerman: Expressing the Chaos

Sunday, June 10 at 8 p.m.

A retrospective of a remarkable artist whose personal demons and empathy for human suffering colored a lifetime of her work.

Before the Fall: Prevention and Recovery

Tuesday, June 12 at 8:30 p.m.

Each year, one in three people age 65+ experiences a fall serious enough to require medical attention. Explore key factors that cause falling and ways to prevent falling or reduce risk. Various ways to prevent falling, such as making simple home modifications and improving strength and balance, can reap benefits for every older adult.

108 Degrees: Critical Response

Saturday, June 16 at 9 p.m.

The film looks at the seriousness of heat illness and its underlying causes, as well as how to treat and prevent exertional heat illness.

Life on the Line

Tuesdays at 8:30 p.m. beginning June 19

The desire to overcome is at the core of everyone - especially those fighting disease, facing a natural disaster, or coping with a disability or battling mental illness. The series is an inspiring look into the resilience of humankind.

You are Stronger than You Think

Tuesday, June 26 at 9 p.m.

This is a story of hope and of possibility. This is a story of beating fear, the fear that destroys dreams. Through first-person narrative and powerful emotional storytelling, this documentary will give you a front row seat to a tale of personal triumph in the face of huge odds.

Wheelchair Diaries: One Step Up

Saturday, June 30 at 8:30 p.m.

Director's Commentary: I made this film partially out of frustration of not being able to study abroad with my classmates. If accessibility was so bad in Europe that I couldn't go, I wondered how Europeans with disabilities function... The experience of making Wheelchair Diaries is why I have and will make more films from the disabled perspective.