

UEN-TV Monthly Health Highlights - April 2020

Safe Enough?

Thursday, April 2 at 8 p.m.

Fifty years after the Federal Government mandated seatbelts in all passenger cars, they're still not required on school buses. Why?

Defeating Cancer

Thursday, April 2 at 9 p.m.

A documentary that focuses on cutting-edge biomedical and health research efforts and the many threads that connect cancer patients to doctors, researchers and innovators across the country and around the world.

Autism: Emerging from the Maze

Tuesday, April 7 at 9 p.m.

1 out of every 88 children in America has autism. Examine the research and advancements in treatment at the UC Davis MIND Institute making international news and how a clinic at Sutter Health is helping autistic adults. Learn of inspiring stories and behavior therapy programs help children and families from the maze of this puzzling disorder.

Shelter Me -- In Times of Need

Saturday, April 11 at 9 p.m.

Alzheimer's facilities foster orphaned kittens. This not only provides the kittens the 24-hour care they need to survive but also engages the seniors at the memory care facilities in profound ways.

Power over Parkinson's

Tuesday, April 14 at 9 p.m.

View powerful and positive portraits of patients and doctors who are focused on exercise research to improve the lives of people living with Parkinson's disease.

Generation A: Portraits on Autism and the Arts

Sunday, April 19 at 8 p.m.

The film provides a platform for youths with autism to speak frankly about their challenges and their dreams; and to showcase their talents which include dancing, singing, painting and animated filmmaking.

Power over Parkinson's 2

Tuesday, April 21 at 9 p.m.

Patients, doctors and other experts discuss the complementary therapies being studied and implemented into everyday life and the potential benefits of integrative treatment programs that address both mind and body.

Empowered by Parkinson's

Friday, April 24 at 8 p.m.

The documentary explores a holistic approach to wellness for people living with Parkinson's and illuminates the benefits of continued exercise and activity in the lives of real patients.

Risking Light

Tuesday, April 28 at 9 p.m.

Explore what the world can look like when individuals transform their profound grief and anger into radical forgiveness.

