

UEN-TV Highlights - November 2016

Veterans Day

Old Guys and their Airplanes: The Chris Morgan Story

Saturday, November 12 at 8:30 p.m.

Chris Morgan was a prisoner of the Japanese from October 1943 through June 1945. While Allied prisoners of German camps experienced a mortality rate of about 3%, those under Japanese military suffered, depending upon your source, between 33% and 43% mortality. That Chris survived is one thing. How he thrived... is another.

Stand and Salute: Our Veterans

Saturday, November 12 at 9 p.m.

The program spotlights service members during and after active duty. innovative resources offer housing, as well as treatment for addiction, mental health issues, and Military Sexual Trauma (MST). Highlighted are Veterans' Treatment Courts that are giving soldiers a second chance when PTSD or other service-related challenges result in criminal arrest.

In Their Words: Songwriting with Soldiers

Sunday, November 13 at 8 p.m.

Volunteers and professional songwriters work with soldiers to help post-traumatic stress. They write songs about their military experience giving soldiers a chance at healing.

Women's Issues

Learning to Lead by Reaching Out

Tuesday, November 1 at 9 p.m.

Learn how you can prepare to influence and lead through reaching out. Dr. Susan R. Madsen, founder of the Utah Women & Leadership Project, will moderate a lively and engaging panel of community experts on this topic.

Raising Ms. President

Wednesday, November 9 at 8 p.m.

Women make up more than half of the American population and workforce. Yet, the United States only ranks 97th out of 190 countries when it comes to the number of women in elected office. Filmmaker Kiley Lane explores why more women don't run for office.

She Talks Utah: What, How and Why We Lead and why You Should Too

Tuesday, November 15 at 8:30 p.m.

Utah women share their personal stories, ideas, and passions surrounding a specific subject. Learn from women who lead in a variety of settings, including political, religious, media, education, business, community and home. Explore reasons why women should aspire to influence and lead both informally and formally in unique and meaningful ways.

New Series

American Entrepreneurial Genius

Mondays at 7:30 p.m. beginning November 7

The series explores the 400-year-old history of America's incomparable entrepreneurial spirit that shaped and advanced the country from the first settlement in Jamestown, to the globally dominant tech industry of the 21st century. Since 1607, America's great entrepreneurial spirit has created a multitude of inventions, businesses, and advancements that have revolutionized the world.

Wildest Arctic

Mondays at 9 p.m. beginning November 7

Wildest Arctic captures the awesome cinematic range of the Arctic region, from the crashes of vast glaciers, to the howls of the wildest wolves and the haunting remoteness of this true wilderness. We find wolverines, lynx and leopards in the Taiga (Russian for "forest"); polar bears and whales in the Arctic Ocean; Arctic foxes and Atlantic puffins in Iceland; and follow the 2,000 mile migration of 500,000 caribou in the Tundra.

Urban Animals

Tuesdays at 8:30 p.m. beginning November 8

Episodes feature stories about the many varied creatures that share our lives, from dogs and cats to exotic pets, from pigeons and squirrels to the animals who star in plays, TV commercials and movies, zoo residents and aquariums.