

UEN-TV Highlights - December 2016

Families

TV Family

Tuesday, December 6 at 9 p.m.

A 1960 documentary featured the lives of the ten-member Robertson family of Amarillo, Texas. The new program describes their memories of the shoot and the ways the program reflected and distorted their lives.

Klocked: Women with Horsepower

Saturday, December 17 at 8 p.m.

Women motorcycle land speed record holder, Laura Klock and her two daughters are profiled.

Starboard Light

Tuesday, December 20 at 9 p.m.

This documentary is a love letter to a cherished family home. It is an inspiring and poignant film that asks, does a family make a house or does a house make a family?

Our American Family: The Mays

Wednesday, December 28 at 8:30 p.m.

Courage brought 17-year-old Jacob May to the U.S. from Germany in 1879 in search of a better life. The family moved from poverty to prosperity with the May Hosiery Mill in Nashville and for three generations have displayed a fearless story of hope and courage.

Arts & Literature

Reading and Writing in the Disciplines

Saturdays at 11 a.m. beginning December 3

A professional development series for teachers and literacy coaches encompassing four discipline strands; mathematics, science, English and history / social studies.

Beatrix Potter with Patricia Routledge

Saturday, December 10 at 8 p.m.

Beloved children's author Beatrix Potter's life story is recounted in 2016, her 150th birthday.

Yo Soy Actor (I'm an Actor)

Sunday, December 11 at 7:30 p.m.

What is universal and what is unique about the struggles for a Cuban and American actor?

Childsplay: A Story of Fiddlers, Fiddlers and a Fiddlemaker

Sunday, December 25 at 8 p.m.

Recorded live in 2013 at the Zeiterion Theatre in New Bedford, Massachusetts, the concert features the fiddle choir Childsplay. The program showcases the group's passion, authenticity and artistry and affirms the thriving popularity of traditional music, song and dance in North America.

WWII

Remember Pearl Harbor

Wednesday, December 7 at 8 p.m.

Veterans and citizens who witnessed the surprise attack by the Japanese on December 7, 1941 share their personal stories

America's Finest Ambassadors: Our Armed Forces

Wednesday, December 7 at 9:30 p.m.

Children during WWII, now between the ages of 76 and 85 recall the friendly relationship of the American soldiers and also recall the hardship of the war through the eyes of children.

The American St. Nick

Wednesday, December 21 at 8 p.m.

The battle-weary 28th Infantry Division of the American Army brought joy and hope to the children of a war-torn town in Luxemburg.

A Wing and a Prayer

Wednesday, December 28 at 9 p.m.

World War II veterans risked their lives to give the state of Israel a chance to survive.

