

UEN-TV Highlights - February 2017

America

Red Power Energy

Thursday, February 2 at 9 p.m.

Native peoples are in the midst of an extraordinary resurgence. They are challenging long-held stereotypes, fighting for the sovereign right to control their lands.

Division Street

Monday, February 20 at 9 p.m.

America's network of interstate highways and local roads were largely constructed before the advent of modern day ecology. What would it take to imagine a new kind of road that would mitigate their environmental impact?

America's Generations with Chuck Underwood

Tuesdays at 9 p.m. beginning February 21

The series highlight the unique talents and contributions of Baby Boomers, Gen Xers and Millennials to American Life.

America's Diplomats

Thursday, February 23 at 9 p.m.

The stories of diplomats and their families from Ben Franklin to Benghazi is revealed as they work behind the scenes for American foreign policy.

February Specials

African American Museum

Wednesday, February 1 at 9 p.m.

This special captures the details, ingenuity, and the history surrounding the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture. .

Reel South: Soul City

Thursday, February 2 at 7:30 p.m.

A group of civil rights activists attempt to build a multiracial utopia - Soul City - in the heart of North Carolina's Klan Country in the 1970s.

An Evening with Eric Holder

Thursday, February 16 at 9 p.m.

This is a conversation with the third longest-serving Attorney General in U.S. history.

Young Lincoln

Saturday, February 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Learn how his boyhood years formed his personality, his early political notions and his character.

Raising Ms. President

Saturday, February 18 at 8 p.m.

Filmmaker Kiley Lane explores why more women don't run for public office in the United States.

Health

The Music's Gonna Get You Through

Saturday, February 4 at 8 p.m.

Drawing on his New Orleans heritage, extensive music study and experience as a blind black man, Butler founded the Creative Music and Jazz camp and crafted an eclectic curriculum that encourages students to see art and music as tools for survival.

Good Cardiovascular and Diabetic Health

Saturday, February 4 at 9 p.m.

Peripheral Arterial Disease: Peripheral Arterial Disease, or PAD, is a buildup of fatty deposits known as plaque in the limbs - most commonly the legs - which causes reduced blood flow are topics of this film.

Sight: The Story of Vision

Tuesday, February 7 at 9 p.m.

This documentary looks at the science, medicine and technology of vision and the individuals who are battling the darkness of blindness.

You and Your Heart

Saturday, February 25 at 9 p.m.

Unique areas of heart disease including non-ischemic issues and coronary heart disease are discussed.