

UEN-TV Highlights - March 2017

Immigrants

Roadtrip Nation: Beyond the Dream

Saturday, March 18 at 9 p.m.

Three 20-something immigrants have a grave question, "Will I be able to stay in this country?" Determined to clarify their futures despite their murky status, they set out in a green RV for an unforgettable journey where they explore the country.

Kurdish: Searching for Newroz

Tuesday, March 21 at 9 p.m.

A Kurdish couple forge a new beginning in Sweden while trying to retain their Kurdish heritage.

Next Door Neighbors: New Beginnings

Tuesday, March 21 at 9:30 p.m.

Refugees explain why they left their native countries behind to make a new beginning in Nashville.

Afghanistan: Our Own Backyard

Wednesday, March 29 at 8 p.m.

Afghan teachers, students and entrepreneurs - global citizens - work to replace guns and tanks with education and entrepreneurship and hatred and violence with tolerance and human rights.

Women's History Month

The Ascent of Woman: A 10,000 Year Story

Wednesdays at 8 p.m. beginning March 1

Over the course of this four-episode series, Dr. Amanda Foreman examines the lives of numerous extraordinary women who created their own routes to power, from ancient times through modern political movements.

Trail Magic: The Grandma Gatewood Story

Saturday, March 4 at 9 p.m.

At age 66, Emma "Grandma" Gatewood became the first woman to hike the Appalachian Trail alone.

Calculating Ada: The Countess of Computing

Monday, March 13 at 9 p.m.

Victorian-era British socialite Ada Lovelace was one of the world's earliest - and likeliest - computer pioneers.

Ohero:kon - Under the Husk

Saturday, March 25 at 7:30 p.m.

The documentary follows the challenging journey of two Mohawk girls as they take part in their traditional passage rites to becoming Mohawk women.

Entrepreneurs

Creating & Growing Small Businesses as Women

Thursday, March 2 at 9 p.m.

Julie de Azevedo Hanks, PhD, LCSW speaks to women about creating and growing small businesses.

Aspiring Entrepreneurs

Thursday, March 9 at 9 p.m.

Women who are both businesswomen and mothers, have fit both roles into their lives.

Start from Scratch: First Steps to Launch Your Own Business

Thursday, March 16 at 9 p.m.

Ann Marie and Deb have helped women launch 237 new businesses in the last three years. In this workshop you will learn how to identify if your business idea has potential for success, receive help to lay out your plan of attack and even take the first step!

Growing Your Own Business As Women

Thursday, March 23 at 9 p.m.

The program shows how to accelerate revenue and deliver your products or services through operational excellence.