

UEN-TV Monthly Highlights - June 2017

History and Arts

Return to Normandy

Saturday, June 3 at 7:30 p.m.

22 World War II veterans attend the 70th anniversary of the invasion of D-Day in Normandy, France.

D-Day: Over Normandy

Tuesday, June 6 at 9 p.m.

View some of the most spectacular scenes of the landing beaches, some iconic locations in Normandy from D-Day captured by one of France's top aerial drone camera companies and some archival footage from June 6, 1944.

Let There Be Light

Sunday, June 11 at 8 p.m.

Grand masters of stained glass art, artist Rowan LeCompte and craftsman Dieter Goldkuhle create their last great series of windows for the Washington National Cathedral. Utah Valley University's "Roots of Knowledge" gallery is an example of Utah glass artists Tom Holdman and Cameron Oscarson.

DruidShakespeare

Sunday, June 25 at 8 p.m.

Pioneering director Garry Hynes and her troop take on Shakespeare, casting Irish women as English kings and men as bawdy widows for the 2015 Druid Theatre Company's 40th anniversary.

Contemporary Issues

American Con

Thursday, June 8 at 8:30 p.m.

Taken from actual financial fraud cases from across the country, "American Con" will tell the story of a different scam and its disastrous effects on the victims in each episode.

American Mosque

Thursday, June 15 at 8:30 p.m.

Determined members of different faiths come together to support the Muslim community as it peacefully rebuilds its mosque.

Denial: The Dad that Wanted to Save the World

Saturday, June 17 at 9 p.m.

The energy debate and transgender issues, two thorny topics that at first glance seem miles apart, are ultimately united by the struggles of one man trying to confront issues that most people would prefer to ignore.

Daring Journey: From Immigration to Education

Thursday, June 29 at 8 p.m.

This is a first-hand account of the struggles four illegal immigrants face as they try to earn a living and seek a higher education for themselves and their children.
